Grandson of the legendary Bob Marley, Skip Marley first broke into a music scene of his own after featuring on Katy Perry's 2017 hit "Chained to the Rhythm." He takes influence from his reggae roots and blends it with contemporary genres to create a sound that's uniquely reggae, pop, rap, and rock. His 2019 collaboration with R&B artist H.E.R. ("Slow Down") hit number one on the Billboard Adult R&B chart, and his most recent album "Higher Place" includes features by Rick Ross, Ari Lennox, and Damian Marley.
